EAGLES PLAY HEREFORD HERE ANNUAL BATTLE

HIGH SCHOOL EXES PLAN A HOME-COMING

Grid Game Promises to be Classic Affair at Buffalo Stadium Friday Afternoon.

Rope the Whitefaces!
That's the battle cry of the Canyon High School Eagles as they prepare for the annual high school football classic of the Panhandle to be played Friday afternoon at Buffalo stadium. Nothing is being left undone in preparing for the greatest game of the year for the local high school eleven.

The day promises to be one of the most outstanding days in the entire school year, according to announcements made early this week by Superintendent Irby Carruth.

Friday, which marks the day of the game, will also be Home-Coming for the ex-students of the Canyon High School. Mr. Carruth announces. A large number of former students and graduates of the Canyon High School are expected to be present at the game and at the banquet to be held for the ex-students at the Presbyterian church Friday evening.

The Hereford High School Whitefaces have the reputation of being a husky bunch this season, and have trampled all opponents so far. They defeated the Clovis team by a 6-0 score making their touchdown on a blocked punt. Canyon Eagles defeated the Clovis team by a 7-6 score last week, after playing a good game all the way through four quarters.

Coach Edgar Brady announces that the Eagles are in top shape and will be ready to go tomorrow afternoon. They emerged from the Clovis game with no injuries and are primed for the clash with the Whitefaces.

Hereford and Canyon have been rivals for years and until two years ago the Eagles held a long string of wins over the Whitefaces. But during the past two seasons the Hereford crew have managed to take the district title and as a result they have sent the Eagles to defeat. All efforts are being made to regain the winning prestige held by Canyon for so many years.

It has been announced that the business firms of Hereford will close up and come to Canyon in a body to back the Whitefaces. Superintendent Irby Carruth urges that all Canyon citizens come out and root for the Eagles. He states that the co-operation on the part of Canyon business men will be appreciated.

Randall County Club Boys Win At State Fair

Two Randall county club boys went into the winnings at the Dallas State Fair last week when Alfred Friemel won 3rd on hegari and George Friemel won 4th on kaffir. The other entries failed to place.

These winnings are greater when it is considered that there were 100 entries in each class of the club boys grain sorghum show at the fair.

The young farmers are on the job aiding to hold up the reputation of Randall as a banner county of the state. Information of these winnings comes from W. H. Upchurch, who is in Dallas with the winning exhibit of Randall county, winner of first place at both the Tri-State Fair and the Dallas State Fair.

Other winnings announced at the Dallas State Fair this week were first on hard winter wheat, and first on alfalfa. The other winnings were small owing to the very great competition from every section of the state.

EXES AT FARWELL APPROVE ADVANCE DEGREE WORK

Registrar D. A. Shirley was in Farwell Saturday attending teachers county institute. He spoke regarding the advanced work which will be offered at W. T. beginning next summer when students may work on their masters degrees.

The teachers were highly pleased to hear that masters degrees were to be offered here, as many of them had planned to leave the state to secure masters degrees from teachers colleges.

M. A. DEGREES TO BE AWARDED AT W. T. COLLEGE

BOARD OF REGENTS AUTHORIZED WORK TO START.

New Courses Will Start in Summer of 1931; Will Bring Many Advanced Students.

Beginning with the summer session, 1931, this College will open its graduate school, and Masters Degrees will be offered.

The State Board of Teachers College Regents, at its annual meeting held in Dallas last Thursday, authorized the addition of another year's work to the curriculum of the college and the granting of the M. A. degree.

President J. A. Hill and other officers of the College are much pleased with the addition which has been made. In connection with the action of the Board, President Hill said, "This authorization is the culmination of two years effort. Graduate work at Canyon was inevitable, and sentiment in favor of it was a matter of development."

"Of course Canyon is one of the system of seven teachers colleges, each having its own problems, but all of them having to move together; this means a slow, safe movement. The Board in granting graduate work to the colleges did not specify when it should begin, each college having the privilege of beginning when it feels ready to do so. Canyon will begin on a small scale with next summer session."

President Hill went on to say that "The teachers colleges now stand in the same relation to the public school system as they did in 1917 when the Board changed them from junior to senior colleges. The standards of public education have risen so rapidly that new demands are made on the institutions that train teachers. The teachers colleges are established by law to train teachers. Crucial Test in Store for Buffs Against Billies

The Buffaloes of West Texas meet their crucial test tonight at Brownwood when they play the Hill Billies of Daniel Baker in a conference game.

The game originally set for Friday night was set up for tonight owing to a conflict with another game at Brownwood.

For the first time in its history the Buffs are mounted at the top of the list in the T. I. A. A. grid race. The game tonight will tell the story as to whether the Thundering Herd of Coach Claude Reeds has an opportunity of winning the title.

The Herd departed for Brownwood Wednesday morning, expecting to take a light workout this afternoon. The squad is in good condition, coming out of the East Texas game Friday night with few injuries.

Tom Knighton announced this morning that The Buffalo would receive the reports of the game by quarters tonight. Results may be obtained there he states.

JUDGE L. GOUGH WORKING FOR THE AMENDMENTS

Judge L. Gough of Amarillo was here yesterday conferring with friends regarding the constitutional amendments which are to be voted upon November 4th. Judge Gough is very much interested in seeing these amendments adopted, and is devoting considerable time to seeing that the people understand the merits of the amendments.

EXPLAINED FIVE AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

ELECTION ON NOVEMBER 4th HAS AMENDMENTS.

Clyde Warwick Speaks to Rotary Clubs of Canyon, Pampa and Amarillo This Week.

Discussion of the constitutional amendments to be voted upon in the general election on November 4th was the primary business at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. Clyde W. Warwick discussed the various phases of these amendments. He spoke yesterday at the Rotary Club luncheon in Pampa, and will address the Rotarians of Amarillo today on the subject of the amendments.

Burt Newlin made a short statement regarding the work of the committee of public information. This work is carried on through the weekly reports of the luncheons as published in the News. W. D. Pike and Clyde Warwick are the other members of this committee.

Gordon Thompson, scoutmaster, thanked the Rotary Club for the equipment which had been furnished during the past year. He believed that no other scout troop has as good equipment as the Rotary Club had furnished.

Guests at the luncheon were: Arthur Osgood and Grady Nobles of Amarillo, Gordon Thompson and Ray V. Davis of Canyon.

In discussing the constitutional amendments, Mr. Warwick pointed out the fact that most attempts to pass amendments fail because the people are afraid of changes in the constitution of the state, and vote against good amendments for lack of information on the questions involved.

The change in the supreme court provides that the court shall be open to the people all the year around. Under the present provision, the court is forced to take a three months vacation every year. The court is five years behind with its work. The judges should not be forced by the present constitutional provision to take a three months vacation, when as a matter of fact they do not need so long a vacation while the people's business pile up and the court continues to fall behind with its work.

Another amendment provides that the two million acres of university lands located in the seven West Texas counties may be taxed for local purposes at the same valuation as other people are paying.

These 17 counties may build roads, and maintain schools and county governments to look after local conditions, while the university lands escape taxation. It is unfair to these counties. The penitentiary owns 88,700 acres of land in several East and South Texas counties. The state pays these counties local taxes, but so far have failed to pay the West Texas counties taxes on the university lands.

According to the speaker, the amendment which is of greatest importance at the present time, and should be passed without question is the one allowing the regents of the university to invest the permanent building fund in other lands.

Graduates of College Make Record at T. U.

Graduates of the West Texas State Teachers College are making enviable records in the graduate school of the University of Texas this year.

Miss Mary Boston, of Hedley made the highest grade in the mathematics class of which she is a member. She did her work here, receiving her degree in 1930.

Miss Ivy Parker, 1928, of Tucumcari, New Mexico, is assistant in the chemistry department and working for the Ph. D. degree. Her sister, Miss Bertha Parker, 1929, is assistant in the physics department.

Preston Wohlford, 1927, is head tutor in the chemistry department and is working rapidly toward his doctor's degree.

Otto Meyers, 1928, of Canyon, is assistant to Dean T. W. Taylor, head of the department of electrical engineering.

All of these students majored in mathematics or science in the West Texas State Teachers College.

Prominent State Men Expected for Open Park Day

A number of prominent state men are expected here for the open day into the Palo Duro Canyons according to L. N. George, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Details for a program with these prominent men as speakers is being worked out at this time, Mr. George states. State Senator Clint C. Small will be among those present, according to word received from Mr. Small this week. Hon. Pat M. Neff and Governor Dan Moody stated that they cannot be present owing to other engagements at that time. A large number of other prominent men who were invited to be here have not been heard from.

The trip into the canyons on Sunday, November 2nd, will be somewhat different to that of the one staged in July. Visitors are directed to come to Canyon and follow the marked route east. The road will be clearly marked and easily followed.

A trail will be blazed around the rim of the canyons leading to the Box canyon where the trip will end. Preparations are being made to patrol the crowds in an orderly manner with motorcycle patrolmen.

A crowd fully as large as the one here in July is expected on November 2. These trips into the Palo Duro are expected to result in selling the idea of a State Park in the canyons, to the people of the Panhandle. A program will be worked out later to present to the State Legislature asking for a park in the Palo Duro Canyons.

Division Engineer Ordered to Pave the Highway Gap

The State Highway Department has announced that officials will look into the matter of finishing the 1300 feet gap just north of the Santa Fe viaduct on the highway to Amarillo.

The short strip was left unpaved at the time the rest of the work was done last year, and up to this time nothing has been done to pave the gap. Several Canyon citizens protested recently to the state officials that the gap had remained unpaved for a year.

In a letter addressed to Judge B. F. Fronabarger, from the State Highway Department, the following announcement was made:

"This is to advise that we have requested our Division Engineer to submit this recommendation together with estimates of cost, and to assure you that this matter will receive every attention."

The gap was left when the paving was done between Canyon and Amarillo, the engineers believing that the dump should be allowed to settle more before the concrete was run. As a result, this dump was very bad, and dangerous whenever rains have fallen. Water running down the highway through the underpass did considerable damage to the dump during the heavy rains last week. To pave this gap, and at the same time provide a method of taking care of the water from the underpass will be the work of the division engineer.

Mrs. T. B. Atkins and children of Amarillo visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ratcliff here Wednesday.

Miss Ruby Zachry and brothers, Eugene and Dallas, visited their parents in Happy Wednesday.

Hill, "Joberta" being the combination of the first syllable of Joseph and the last syllable of Robert, feminine gender.

Canyon merchants are preparing to entertain the largest crowd of the year at the regular Canyon Chamber of Commerce Trades Day, which will be held next Monday.

The Chamber of Commerce has arranged, through the courtesy of W. J. Wooten of the Olympic Theatre, to show a free picture at the Olympic. "The Rainbow's End," an all talking picture starring Bob Steele will begin at 2 p. m. Monday afternoon. The picture has a gripping love plot and has proven to be a popular show. To make the afternoon's entertainment complete, the Chamber of Commerce has arranged, through Mr. Wooten for a cartoon comedy, making a complete matinee program.

The show will take the place of the usual entertainment and because of the free picture, merchants expect the largest crowd here on Trades Day in Canyon so far this year.

"The Rainbow's End" may perhaps be termed in such a way as to hold a special interest for the people of Canyon trade territory. Through mythical stories of a pot of gold resting at the end of the rainbow. This, Canyon merchants declare, will be more or less true for the shoppers in this trade territory who come to Canyon Monday.

Bargains which will mean a savings of many dollars to every household in this entire section are being offered as special attractions to come to Canyon next Monday. By taking advantage of the bargains offered the people will almost have found a "pot of gold" at the "rainbow's end."

Upchurch Thanks People of County for Co-Operation

W. H. Upchurch, who is still at the Dallas State Fair demonstrating to the world the wonders of Randall county with the winning exhibit of Randall county farm products, wishes to thank those who aided to make the exhibit a success.

In a communication to a member of the News force early this week, Mr. Upchurch said, "I wish to thank all those who so kindly assisted us in the preparation of the exhibit and especially the farmers who donated their products in this dry year that were good enough to put Randall over for a straight win of the blue ribbon for each of the three fairs that we made this year,—the spring show at Fort Worth, and the two big fall shows, at Amarillo and Dallas. I think that this is the first time that a county has won first at three such fairs in the same year."

"I cannot find words to express my appreciation for the co-operation that we have had from the farmers of the county this year in getting up the exhibit, for after all the co-operation of the farmers who produce the products is the most important thing in putting on a winning exhibit."

All Randall county has rejoiced that despite all the handicaps which have apparently been thrown in the way this year, County Agent Upchurch walked away with the honors for the county which he has so faithfully served for the past four years.

The magnitude of his winnings can only be realized when it is considered that the agricultural show at the State Fair of Texas is just twice the size that it was a year ago.

Annual Drive of Red Cross Begins on November 10th

The annual Red Cross Roll Call drive of the Randall County Chapter of the American Red Cross will begin November 10, according to information released early this week by Mrs. John S. Humphreys, chairman of the roll call drive.

The drive to be staged this year will be similar to the one last year. Red Cross workers will make a complete canvass of the town and county extending a personal appeal to join the Red Cross.

The fees for membership in the Red Cross are: Annual $1; contributing $5; sustaining $10, and supporting $25. Fifty cents is used for the support of the work in the name of the National organization, while the remaining amount is to be used locally.

The American Red Cross is chartered by Congress to relieve and prevent distress and suffering in times of war and in times of peace, both at home and abroad.

It is pointed out that the outstanding work accomplished by the Randall County Chapter during the past year, was the securing of the free nursing service for the schools of the county. With Dr. D. M. Stewart, chairman of the county organization, a special nurse was employed for three months and made a visit to the various schools of the county, giving free health examinations of all the pupils. This included the Canyon Public Schools and the Training School at the College.

Court House is the Only Voting Place for Precinct One

All of the voters in commissioner precinct No. 1 will vote at the court house in the general election, Nov. 4th, was the decision reached Monday by the election judges. Although the ballots will be much larger than in the primary election, there are fewer names, and will be more easily counted. The constitutional amendments printed at the bottom of the ballots will be the only things about the ballots to cause any confusion to the voters, or take excessive time in the counting of the ballots.

A. M. Smith is judge of the election in precinct No. 1.

Amarillo Lady Is Speaker at College Chapel

Mrs. C. E. Palmer of Amarillo was the speaker at the assembly of the West Texas State Teachers College Tuesday, taking as her subject the development of interest in Art in the United States.

"Fairs," said Mrs. Palmer, "do a great deal to awaken interest in art. This has been especially true in Texas. The Tri-State Fair, the Dallas Fair, the Abilene Fair, and the Waco Cotton Carnival have done more to awaken interest in art than can be measured to develop an interest in Art."

Mrs. Palmer is a member of the Southern State Art League, and is chairman of the Art department of the Seventh District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Her talk in Canyon was much appreciated by the students and faculty.

Miss Lorna Stock of Plemons spent the week end in the parental E. B. Stock home here.

JUDGE L. GOUGH WORKING FOR THE AMENDMENTS

Judge L. Gough of Amarillo was here yesterday conferring with friends regarding the constitutional amendments which are to be voted upon November 4th. Judge Gough is very much interested in seeing these amendments adopted, and is devoting considerable time to seeing that the people understand the merits of the amendments.

EXPLAINED FIVE AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

ELECTION ON NOVEMBER 4th HAS AMENDMENTS.

Clyde Warwick Speaks to Rotary Clubs of Canyon, Pampa and Amarillo This Week.

Discussion of the constitutional amendments to be voted upon in the general election on November 4th was the primary business at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. Clyde W. Guests at the luncheon were: Arthur Osgood and Grady Nobles of Amarillo, Gordon Thompson and Ray V. Davis of Canyon.

In discussing the constitutional amendments, Mr. Warwick pointed out the fact that most attempts to pass amendments fail because the people are afraid of changes in the constitution of the state, and vote against good amendments for lack of information on the questions involved.

The change in the supreme court provides that the court shall be open to the people all the year around. Under the present provision, the court is forced to take a three months vacation every year. The court is five years behind with its work. The judges should not be forced by the present constitutional provision to take a three months vacation, when as a matter of fact they do not need so long a vacation while the people's business pile up and the court continues to fall behind with its work.

Division Engineer Ordered to Pave the Highway Gap

The State Highway Department has announced that officials will look into the matter of finishing the 1300 foot gap just north of the Santa Fe viaduct on the highway to Amarillo.

The short strip was left unpaved at the time the rest of the work was done last year, and up to this time nothing has been done to pave the gap. Several Canyon citizens protested recently to the state officials that the gap had remained unpaved for a year.

In a letter addressed to Judge B. F. Fronabarger, from the State Highway Department, the following announcement was made:

"This is to advise that we have requested our Division Engineer, to submit this recommendation together with estimates of cost, and to assure you that this matter will receive every attention."

The gap was left when the paving was done between Canyon and Amarillo, the engineers believing that the dump should be allowed to settle more before the concrete was run. As a result, this dump was very bad, and dangerous whenever rains have fallen. Water running down the highway through the underpass did considerable damage to the dump during the heavy rains last week. To pave this gap, and at the same time provide a method of taking care of the water from the underpass will be the work of the division engineer.

Miss Hattie M. Anderson of the History department of the West Texas State Teachers College has been selected to represent that institution at the state convention of the American Association of University Women at Waco, October 24 and 25. Miss Anderson is also the accredited delegate from the Canyon branch of the organization.

As a member of the nominating committee, Miss Anderson has an important part in the convention. Ordinarily the choices of this committee become the officers for the next year.

"The Rainbow's End" an All-Talking Picture Will Be Free Entertainment Monday—Trades Day.

JOBERTA
The baby has been named! "Joberta" has been chosen as the name of the baby buffalo in the election held by the high school seniors last week. This name, suggested by Royal Pitts, a senior, is in honor of the two men who have been presidents of W. T. Robert B. Cousins and Joseph A. Hill, "Joberta" being the combination of the first syllable of Joseph and the last syllable of Robert, feminine gender.

Canyon merchants are preparing to entertain the largest crowd of the year at the regular Canyon Chamber of Commerce Trades Day, which will be held next Monday.

The Chamber of Commerce has arranged, through the courtesy of W. J. Wooten of the Olympic Theatre, to show a free picture at the Olympic. "The Rainbow's End," an all talking picture starring Bob Steele will begin at 2 p. m. Monday afternoon. The picture has a gripping love plot and has proven to be a popular show. To make the afternoon's entertainment complete, the Chamber of Commerce has arranged, through Mr. Wooten for a cartoon comedy, making a complete matinee program.

The show will take the place of the usual entertainment and because of the free picture, merchants expect the largest crowd here on Trades Day that has attended Trades Day in Canyon so far this year.

"The Rainbow's End" may perhaps be termed in such a way as to hold a special interest for the people of Canyon trade territory. Through mythical stories of a pot of gold resting at the end of the rainbow. This, Canyon merchants declare, will be more or less true for the shoppers in this trade territory who come to Canyon Monday.

Bargains which will mean a savings of many dollars to every household in this entire section are being offered as special attractions to come to Canyon next Monday. By taking advantage of the bargains offered the people will almost have found a "pot of gold" at the "rainbow's end."

Don't fail to come to Canyon for the greatest Trades Day of the year, take advantage of the many money saving bargains and see a free show.

Upchurch Thanks People of County for Co-Operation

W. H. Upchurch, who is still at the Dallas State Fair demonstrating to the world the wonders of Randall county with the winning exhibit of Randall county farm products, wishes to thank those who aided to make the exhibit a success.

In a communication to a member of the News force early this week, Mr. Upchurch said, "I wish to thank all those who so kindly assisted us in the preparation of the exhibit and especially the farmers who donated their products in this dry year that were good enough to put Randall over for a straight win of the blue ribbon for each of the three fairs that we made this year,—the spring show at Fort Worth, and the two big fall shows, at Amarillo and Dallas. I think that this is the first time that a county has won first at three such fairs in the same year."

"I cannot find words to express my appreciation for the co-operation that we have had from the farmers of the county this year in getting up the exhibit, for after all the co-operation of the farmers who produce the products is the most important thing in putting on a winning exhibit."

All Randall county has rejoiced that despite all the handicaps which have apparently been thrown in the way this year, County Agent Upchurch walked away with the honors for the county which he has so faithfully served for the past four years.

The magnitude of his winnings can only be realized when it is considered that the agricultural show at the State Fair of Texas is just twice the size that it was a year ago.

Annual Drive of Red Cross Begins on November 10th

The annual Red Cross Roll Call drive of the Randall County Chapter of the American Red Cross will begin November 10, according to information released early this week by Mrs. John S. Humphreys, chairman of the roll call drive.

The drive to be staged this year will be similar to the one last year. Red Cross workers will make a complete canvass of the town and county extending a personal appeal to join the Red Cross.

The fees for membership in the Red Cross are: Annual $1; contributing $5; sustaining $10, and supporting $25. Fifty cents is used for the support of the work in the name of the National organization, while the remaining amount is to be used locally.

The American Red Cross is chartered by Congress to relieve and prevent distress and suffering in times of war and in times of peace, both at home and abroad.

It is pointed out that the outstanding work accomplished by the Randall County Chapter during the past year, was the securing of the free nursing service for the schools of the county. With Dr. D. M. Stewart, chairman of the county organization, a special nurse was employed for three months and made a visit to the various schools of the county, giving free health examinations of all the pupils. This included the Canyon Public Schools and the Training School at the College.

Court House is the Only Voting Place for Precinct One

All of the voters in commissioner precinct No. 1 will vote at the court house in the general election, Nov. 4th, was the decision reached Monday by the election judges. Although the ballots will be much larger than in the primary election, there are fewer names, and will be more easily counted. The constitutional amendments printed at the bottom of the ballots will be the only things about the ballots to cause any confusion to the voters, or take excessive time in the counting of the ballots.

A. M. Smith is judge of the election in precinct No. 1.

Amarillo Lady Is Speaker at College Chapel

Mrs. C. E. Palmer of Amarillo was the speaker at the assembly of the West Texas State Teachers College Tuesday, taking as her subject the development of interest in art in the United States.

"Fairs," said Mrs. Palmer, "do a great deal to awaken interest in art. This has been especially true in Texas. The Tri-State Fair, the Dallas Fair, the Abilene Fair, and the Waco Cotton Carnival have done more to be measured to develop an interest in art."

Mrs. Palmer is a member of the Southern State Art League, and is chairman of the Art department of the Seventh District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Her talk in Canyon was much appreciated by the students and faculty.

Mrs. Lorna Stock of Plemons spent the week end in the parental E. B. Stock home here.

VOTE IN THE ELECTION.

It is predicted that a very, very small number will vote in the general election in Texas on November 4th.

Why go to the expense of a general election, if the people are not going to the polls? Why not say that all who get by the Democratic primaries will be declared elected, and save the time and money involved in a general election?

The Republicans are busy in Texas. They have put their candidate for Governor out to make speeches all over the State. The Republican candidate does not say that he stands any chance to be elected, but he is putting up a very bold front as though he were making a real campaign with a view of winning.

The Democratic candidate for Governor has said nothing, and probably will make no speeches. Judging from the past, no Democratic candidate will appear before the voters before the general election, and some of them may even forget to vote on November 4th.

Five changes in the constitution are proposed, and will be voted upon in the general election. There is practically no opposition to them, excepting that Jim Ferguson says they are all wrong, and therefore his followers will likely vote against them without taking the trouble to even read them.

The Democrats, who took so much interest in the two primaries should now go to the polls and see to it that the Democratic candidates are elected in the general election, and that the constitutional amendments are not defeated through misunderstanding, or through prejudices, or fear that the state government may be improved.

Go to the polls on Tuesday, November 4th, and register your approval of the Democratic candidates, and vote for the constitutional amendments.

Our hats are off again to W. H. Upchurch—if we really got them back on our heads since the Tri-State Fair—for the wonderful exhibit he placed at the Dallas Fair, which took first place, and brought state-wide attention again to the fact that Randall is a great agricultural county. The exhibits which have been assembled by W. H. Upchurch for the various fairs are not accidents—an exhibitor may win once by accident, but accidents such as these do not happen in succession. Upchurch wins in the first place because the county produces prize winning agricultural exhibits; in the second place because he knows prize winning material when he sees it; and in the third place because he knows how to prepare and show the exhibits which the county raises, and which his good judgment tells him is first class. To win at the Tri-State Fair is no empty honor. To win at the Dallas State Fair against 45 of the best exhibitors in the state is a distinct honor which means much to the agricultural development of this good county.

The decision of the Board of Regents of Teachers Colleges to add graduate work in the teachers training institutions of Texas is a worthy step in the right direction. The public schools are demanding—and rightfully so—better trained teachers. Advanced degrees for the teacher which do not come from a teacher training institution means nothing to a teacher, and should mean nothing to a school board so far as recommending the holder for a place in the public schools. As a result, hundreds of Texas teachers were forced to leave the state in order to secure advanced teacher training in a teacher training institution. This fact was brought home impressively to the regents while in Canyon visiting the West Texas State Teachers College. The addition of the graduate work will mean a greater service of the teachers colleges for the public schools of the state.

The University of Texas stands in position to lose something like a half million dollars a year in interest for the permanent building fund unless the voters approve the constitutional amendment on Nov. 4th. The regents may now invest this fund of sixteen millions, which is growing rapidly annually—in U. S. bonds. These bonds now draw three and a quarter percent interest. All of the bonds are due in 1933, and will not be re-issued, except at about two or two and one-fourth percent interest. Instead of investing this growing fund in two percent government bonds, the regents will be authorized to invest in Texas bonds, which draw from 4 to 5 percent interest. Let the voters give the regents the authority to invest this fund in Texas securities, which will add to the buildings on the university campus.

Will Hamblin of Wayside was in the city Monday. He is a member of the commissioners court of Armstrong county, and is greatly interested in seeing the Palo Duro made into a state park. He is building a road into the Palo Duro east of Wayside, and will invite the people of this section to come and drive into the canyons. He hopes to see members of the state park board come to this city on Nov. 2nd, when the Palo Duro is opened to the public, and then come on to Wayside in order to see the canyons in that section.

TRUST TO EXPERIENCE

---the best judge of them all

Tire-buying is hardly to be counted among the "pleasures" of owning an automobile. It means the paying out of money which also may be needed for something else.

That is why most car owners now think twice before they accept a tire. They desire that their purchase of tires be few and far between.

Advertising, friendship, high-powered words—these things don't influence tire-buyers as formerly. Tires are mostly bought today on a straight business basis. On the basis of proved facts, proved performance, proved superiority—not on talk or claims.

Millions more people than ever before now trust to experience—the best judge of them all—in choosing tires.

That is why millions more people buy Goodyear Tires than any other kind.

That is why Goodyear Tires outsell any other tire in the world—by millions.

Experience has finally and conclusively proved that Goodyear Tires are the best tires money can buy. And because the public recognizes Goodyears as the best tires—these tires are becoming even better.

Through the enormous and ever-increasing quantity production brought about by this great public preference, costs have been steadily lowered, permitting Goodyear to give a quality so much greater for the same money that Goodyear Tires are by far, "The world's greatest values."

Trust to experience when you buy tires.

BUFFALOES TOP T. I. A. A. RACE FOR PENNANT

W. T. GRID TEAM HAS WON
BOTH CONFERENCE GAMES PLAYED; DANIEL BAKER IS
T. I. A. A. OPPONENT.

Friday night's game with Commerce placed the Buffaloes at the top of the T. I. A. A. pennant race with two wins and no losses. The only other conference game last week was between Sul Ross and McMurry with Sul Ross on the small end of a 14-0 score. Up to this time Sul Ross had not played a conference game and McMurry had lost one and won none.

The Buffaloes play another conference game this week when they meet Daniel Baker in Daniel Baker's first conference game, to be played in Brownwood. There are three other conference games scheduled for this week end; Denton meets A. C. C. in Denton's first conference tilt; Sam Houston's initial T. I. A. A. game against Commerce, and Stephen F. Austin meets McMurry in Austin's first conference game.

There is much depending on the results of this week's schedule. Dealing in eventualities, should the Buffs be unfortunate enough to lose the scrap with the Hill Billies and Commerce wins over Sam Houston, it means that the Buffs and Lions will be tied for first place with two wins and one loss each. Since Sam Marcus does not meet a conference contender this week end, her record will stand for a time and she will be at the head of the list in games won and lost on a percentage basis. Commerce can tie the Buffaloes by winning over Sam Houston in Saturday's game as can McMurry by winning over Stephen F. Austin, each having played three, with two wins and one loss after and McMurry lose their games, the Buffs will still be ahead in games won and lost should they lose to Daniel Baker. On the other hand by winning the Billygoat tilt, W. T. will strengthen their grip on the pennant and will, in all probability bring home the bacon when they play the last conference game with Stephen F. Austin at Canyon November 15, and McMurry at Canyon, November 27. The standing of the teams is as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct	Play
West Texas	2	0	1000	3
Commerce	1	1	500	3
A. C. C.	1	1	500	3
McMurry	1	1	500	4
Sul Ross	0	1	000	3
Steven F Austin	0	2	000	3
Daniel Baker	0	0	000	5
Denton	0	0	000	4
Sam Houston	0	0	000	3

Batchelder Takes Part in Theatre Play

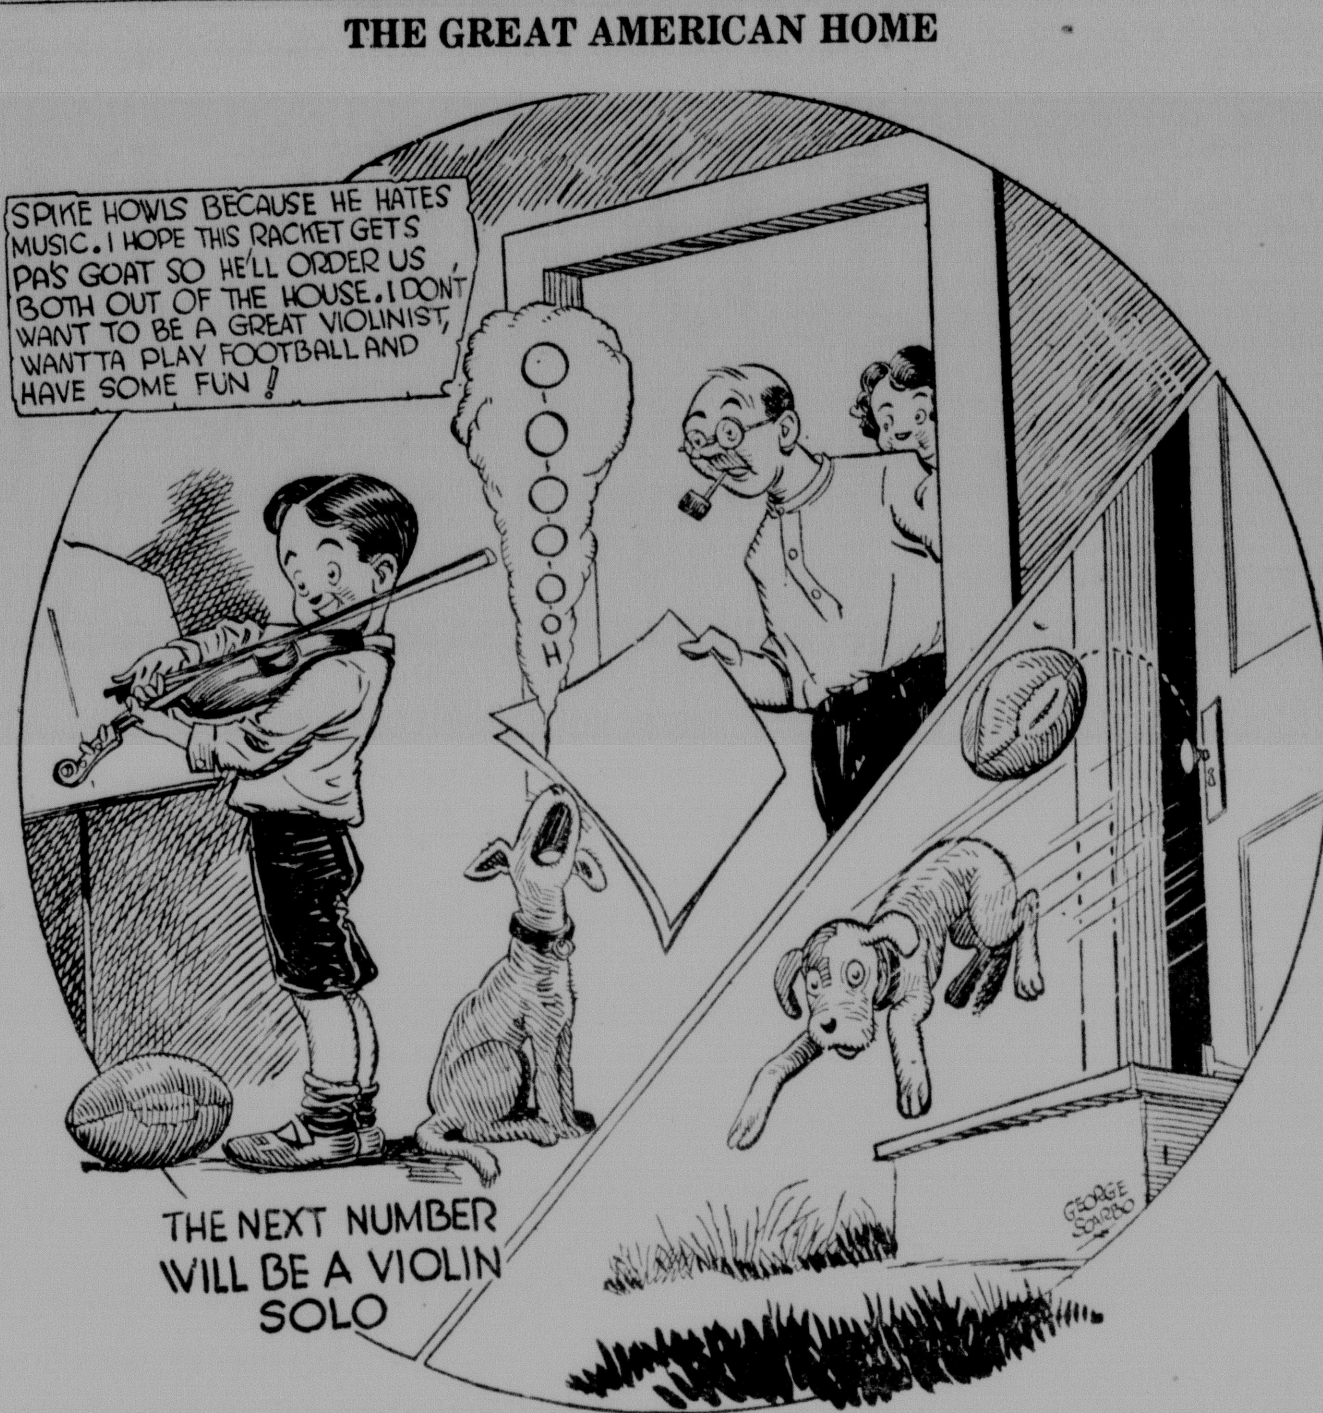

Called upon at the last minute to fill the place of an absentee, Mr. W. C. Batchelder, public speaking instructor in W. T., appeared in the role of Dr. Harding in the first Little Theatre production of the year, "Smilin' Through," given Friday night at the City Auditorium in Amarillo.

The part taken by Mr. Batchelder on such short notice was an important one in the play. Allowed only three days to memorize his lines, which consisted of 165 separate speeches, and two rehearsals with the cast, Mr. Batchelder yet did decidedly some of the best work done in the production, according to critics. "In the presentation of Dr. Harding, an old gentleman of seventy years, he did a remarkably good piece of character work," says Miss Mary Morgan Brown, head of the speech arts department here.

In the second act of the play there was a "throw-back" or reminiscence scene in which all the characters playing elderly parts represented those same characters as they must have appeared twenty years before. Although considered unusually difficult, this scene was well done by the cast Friday night.

The play was directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, who also played the leading role.

The setting of "Smilin' Through" which was very attractive was arranged to a large degree by Mrs. Oma Link Rowley, of Amarillo, who was a member of the speech department in this college during the past summer.

Amarillo College of Music Offers Artists Course

Music lovers of the West Texas State Teachers College and the Panhandle will be given the opportunity of enjoying one of the most choice musical programs ever presented in West Texas. The Amarillo College of Music will, during the winter season, present seven musical numbers beginning Oct. 24, with the Tipica Orchestra, and closing March 20, 1931 with Mme. Galli-Curci.

Following is a list of the artists with the date on which each will appear:

Tipica Orchestra—Oct. 24.
Fritz Kreisler—Nov. 21.

An Evening of Opera—Dec. 1.
Mina Mager—Jan. 21.

Paderewski—Feb. 20.
Pisk Jubilee Singers—Mar. 19.

Mme. Galli-Curci—Mar. 20.

This course is made more attractive because of the popular prices which will be charged, the seven programs being offered at $6.00 to $12.50 for the season.

BUFFALOES TOP T. I. A. A. RACE FOR PENNANT

W. T. GRID TEAM HAS WON BOTH CONFERENCE GAMES PLAYED; DANIEL BAKER IS T. I. A. A. OPPONENT.

Friday night's game with Commerce placed the Buffaloes at the top of the T. I. A. A. pennant race with two wins and no losses. The only other conference game last week was between Sul Ross and McMurry with Sul Ross on the small end of a 14-0 score. Up to this time Sul Ross had not played a conference game and McMurry had lost one and won none.

The Buffaloes play another conference game this week when they meet Daniel Baker in Daniel Baker's first conference game, to be played in Brownwood. There are three other conference games scheduled for this week end; Denton meets A. C. C. in Denton's first conference tilt; Sam Houston's initial T. I. A. A. game against Commerce, and Stephen F. Austin meets McMurry in Austin's first conference game.

There is much depending on the results of this week's schedule. Dealing in eventualities, should the Buffs be unfortunate enough to lose the scrap with the Hill Billies and Commerce wins over Sam Houston, it means that the Buffs and Lions will be tied for first place with two wins and one loss each. Since Sam Marcus does not meet a conference contender this week end, her record will stand for a time and she will be at the head of the list in games won and lost on a percentage basis. Commerce can tie the Buffaloes by winning over Sam Houston in Saturday's game as can McMurry by winning over Stephen F. Austin, each having played three, with two wins and one loss after and McMurry lose their games, the Buffs will still be ahead in games won and lost should they lose to Daniel Baker. On the other hand by winning the Billygoat tilt, W. T. will strengthen their grip on the pennant and will, in all probability bring home the bacon when they play the last conference game with Stephen F. Austin at Canyon November 15, and McMurry at Canyon, November 27. The standing of the teams is as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct	Play
West Texas	2	0	1000	3
Commerce	1	1	500	3
A. C. C.	1	1	500	3
McMurry	1	1	500	4
Sul Ross	0	1	000	3

Batchelder

Takes Part in Theatre Play

Called upon at the last minute to fill the place of an absentee, Mr. W. C. Batchelder, public speaking instructor in W. T., appeared in the role of Dr. Harding in the first Little Theatre production of the year, "Smilin' Through," given Friday night at the City Auditorium in Amarillo.

The part taken by Mr. Batchelder on such short notice was an important one in the play. Allowed only three days to memorize his lines, which consisted of 165 separate speeches, and two rehearsals with the cast, Mr. Batchelder yet did decidedly some of the best work done in the production, according to critics. "In the presentation of Dr. Harding, an old gentleman of seventy years, he did a remarkably good piece of character work," says Miss Mary Morgan Brown, head of the speech arts department here.

In the second act of the play there was a "throw-back" or reminiscent scene in which all the characters playing elderly parts represented those same characters as they must have appeared twenty years before. Although considered unusually difficult, this scene was well done by the cast Friday night. The play was directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, who also played the leading role.

The setting of "Smilin' Through," which was very attractive was arranged to a large degree by Mrs. Oma Link Rowley, of Amarillo, who was a member of the speech department in this college during the past summer.

Well folks the duck season arrived alright, but no ducks. Local Nimrods have in most instances hoped for more rain and some ducks.

W. H. Upchurch, our now exceedingly well known county agent, (in fact he is too well known to suit other Panhandle county agents) has brought publicity worth untold dollars to Canyon and Randall county by the winning county exhibit of farm products at the State Fair of Texas.

With no thought of belittling any of the other work done toward advertising Canyon and Randall county to the world, during the past 12 months, I believe that Upchurch has done as much as any of the efforts at publicity. Upchurch has placed himself in the position where he and his work are the envy of almost every county agent in this section of the state.

There is no doubt but that the county agent of Randall county is an artist in his line and perhaps we folks at home who have seen him day in and day out carrying on the extension work have failed to realize the noble work of pushing the farming interests in this county as much as we should.

I feel sure that the entire citizenship is with me when I say hats off to Upchurch and more power next time.

This force around here including the young squirt and Susie, the dumb steno, think they have hit upon something funny. They attempt to call me "Happy Hooligan" now that I am the magnanimous editor of the Happy Herald.

Another thing that has brought some attention to this section and Canyon in particular, is the pictures of the Palo Duro made by Ray V. Davis and recently published in the Denver Post.

This has to a great extent aroused interest in the beauty of the Canyons and now is the opportune time to drive home the idea of the establishment of a state park in this section. Plans are well under way for the presentation of a bill to the legislature in the coming session to be held next winter.

Of course there are a number of papers that have commented on the pictures made by Mr. Davis and published in the Post. They all try to claim the glory for this section and their individual localities, because of the immense size of the Palo Duro. Even if they do try to claim a share of the publicity on the Canyons, Ray V. Davis deserves it all from the standpoint of contributing the picture of the beautiful scenes in the Canyons. Travis Shaw is due for a large share of the interest created over the various sections of the state during the past few months with his colored motion pictures made in the Palo Duro.

And now we have the night football games over with. I happened to overhear a number of expressions Friday night, to the effect that the parties making the statements were glad that the night games were over with.

That brings to mind the thought of whether or not night football will prove to be so popular in the Panhandle because of the early cool weather.

It has appeared to me that night football will be more popular and might draw larger crowds if it were possible to begin the playing season earlier than usual.

The Madam has been clubbing so much lately, going to social functions and such, that she clubs me with a big stick every time I get the least bit sassy.

I have two loudspeakers at my house and only one radio. I can turn one of the speakers off, but I have never seen anyone that could stop the other.

My friend the old Farmer Hogfissel says that if there were more proposals and less acceptances, there would be less divorces.

Someone did a noble deed when they chased the sparrows and bats, the pigeons and rats from the dome of the county capitol building, and made the old clock strike again.

Improvements Are Still Being Made On W. T. Campus

Under the direction of Mr. R. A. Terrill, supervisor of the college grounds a great many campus improvements are being made. Several have recently been completed.

One of the most important of the completed projects is the club house on the college golf links east of the campus. This is a three-room building comprising an office for the caretaker, a room equipped for light-housekeeping, and a store room. Boys who work on the course occupy the housekeeping room. All modern conveniences of lights, water, gas, and sewerage have been installed in the club house.

On the athletic field there have been built enough ticket offices to effectively take care of the crowds that attend the games. Excellent parking space for cars has also been provided. Before beginning of spring training, the curb around the track will be completed, according to Mr. Terrill.

Construction of a 550 foot side walk 5 feet wide to extend from the east entrance of the administration building to Fourth Avenue has been begun. The sidewalk west of the same building will be extended 60 feet to the entrance of the Men's Gym.

Those in charge are hoping to complete two or more concrete tennis courts, located north of the administration building and just east of the water reservoir before spring.

Personally, it is our own belief, that a man who wrestles an alligator deserves to be bitten on the arm.

The second counter of the game, a safety, came when Harris, Yearling end, broke through the play and tackled a Montezuma back behind their goal line for the two extra points.

Mary Garden to Sing in Amarillo On November 3rd

Of the three cities in Texas that Mary Garden will visit this season in concert recital one of the three is Amarillo. The two others are Dallas and Waco.

Wilbur C. Hawk is responsible for the Garden visit to Amarillo. She will sing, in company with a select group of assisting artists that comprise the Garden personnel, on the night of Monday, November 3, at the Municipal Auditorium under the auspices of the Tri-State Fair of which Mr. Hawk is president.

The Auditorium has been scaled by Mr. Hawk for this occasion at popular prices, the charge for tickets being less in Amarillo than elsewhere. From one dollar to $3.00 is the scale set and Mr. Hawk is now filling mail orders for seats, if such orders are addressed to him in care the Globe-News at Amarillo.

The appearance of the prima donna in Amarillo has aroused a keen interest throughout the Panhandle.

Ticket reservations are coming in from all over the plains country. Those tremendous assets that have been so forcibly exploited by the Garden manager, Charles L. Wagner, namely, voice, personality and brains draw the public as so many magnets.

Miss Garden's last visit here will be re-called by the amount of publicity copy she obtained in the newspapers all over the world through an altercation she had with Gene Howe, editor of the Amarillo Globe News. The editor has buried the hatchet as has the singer and the former will lead the welcoming committee when Mary Garden arrives here two days before her concert appearance at the Amarillo Auditorium.

A Good Appetite?

The prima donna expresses interest in three things when she visits the cities of her itinerary. The air port, the zoological gardens and the movies. They are her hobbies on tour. Upon her return from Europe last October 9 on the Steamship "Bremen", the diva expressed herself as having never felt better or more youthful than she does now after her summer of rest and relaxation on her estate in France. After the Amarillo recital Miss Garden will go to Hollywood to make a motion picture test.

New Cow Testing Course Now Being Offered by W. T.

New equipment for carrying on cow testing by mail, a new course being offered by W. T., and a new thing in this part of the country, has arrived in the department of agriculture. W. T. is the first teachers' college in Texas to offer this service.

The project being carried on in this connection, will give agricultural students in the institution direct experience in checking up on the value of each cow of a herd. Its object is to train farmers and dairymen in the best methods of safe economy.

Men of the Panhandle who are interested in this kind of work may receive this course from the college here at a cost sufficient only to cover the expenses of material and postage.

Bufs-Tech to Clash on Annual Home Coming Day

Saturday, November 1, will be marked as the annual "home coming" day at the West Texas State Teachers College at which time thousands of former students of the college are expected to pay a visit to their Alma Mater and witness the West Texas-Tech football game to be played at Buffalo Stadium in the afternoon.

Coach Reeds' Thundering Herd will attempt to annex another victory to their list for this year. The game is scheduled to begin at 3 o'clock p. m.

A strong rivalry has sprung up between the two colleges since the establishment of Tech at Lubbock several years ago. In the past five years the Tech Matadors have won three and the Buffaloes have won two games. The Bufs won in 1927 and 1929.

Tech fans have announced a special train from Lubbock and it is expected that probably five hundred football fans will board the train for Canyon on that day.

A section of the stadium will be reserved for the West Texas Exes who are here for the Home Coming. A former yell leader will be on hand to lead the Exes in their yells in rooting for the team of old Alma Mater.

Soft Black Hats in Mode for Winter

NEW STYLES, TRIMMED WITH BOWS OR BANDINGS, TEND TO MAKE HEAD LOOK SMALLER—MISTAKES TO AVOID IN MAKING PURCHASES

BY HARRIET

HATS this winter are one of the most important single items in the new mode.

The right hat can make a woman look becoming in an indifferent looking costume, while the wrong hat can completely wreck what would otherwise be a perfect ensemble.

This is a winter when soft hats are at a premium. But in making purchases it is a mistake to get a hat just because the same one looked fine on a woman whose appearance she envied. A hat is primarily a personal bit of apparel. It should bear definite relation to the contour of the wearer's face, to her coloring, the set and shape of her head.

It is also a mistake for women beyond their early twenties to wear their hats far back on their heads. That is a style which should be left to the girls whose ages correspond to flapper years.

New hats have a way of making the head look smaller. This is an elegant fact, for a sleek-headed woman always looks smart. But to get a hat that exaggerates the size of the head's smallness is a mistake, too. A hat should have an extra bow or some trim to give the head the size it should have to go with the general silhouette of a costume.

HATS this winter are made to go well with the dress but not necessarily the coat. For costumes all of a color—brown, red, green or blue—it is well to match the hat to the coat's shade, however, for when the coat is removed the pleasant contrast in shades remains.

Black hats are way and beyond all other hats for popularity this winter. They come in felts, velvets, feathers, fur, fabrics of all kinds and rich brocaded black cloths with gold traceries in them.

The all-black hat is particularly enhancing when it has a bow of this or that color, some intricate banding, lining or jeweled pin.

An all-black hat that is very youthful looking, and excellent for wear with a sleek black satin gown and jewels, is made of a very soft black felt. It has a bow of self material at one side that flings one end across the back of the hat to show the least little bit on the other side. It is a hat that looks very good indeed with pearls and perhaps a diamond bracelet or two.

Quite different in appearance, and far more dignified and older looking, is a sleek black velvet hat with a fancy turquoise blue velvet bow posed at one side of the front. It is a hat with one side longer than the other, with a rolled fold across the back that tapers into the blue bow at the side. Worn with a turquoise blue beads it is lovely as an afternoon hat with a black dress or suit. If worn with a suit it should have a turquoise blue blouse to offset it.

AN "ODD JOBS" CAMPAIGN

By Bruce Catton

There are two ways of meeting any sort of misfortune. One is to sit down and call on the world to witness that you are being foully treated. The other is to roll up your sleeves and go out and do something to make things better.

As far as the present economic depression goes, the first method seems to be more popular with most of us. We read and hear of men who are close to starvation because they can't get work, and we shake our heads and feel sorry for them—and let it go at that.

There are exceptions, however. In Racine, Wis., the citizens decided to adopt the second course; and they have gone to work so effectively that their action deserves to be broadcast over the nation so that other cities can copy it.

An intelligent columnist named Tex Reynolds, who writes for the Racine Times-Call, got the idea that a bit of a job, no matter how paltry, does a jobless man a lot more good than a lot of public wailing. With the aid of his paper, he launched what you might call an Odd Job Campaign, urging everyone in Racine who possibly could to find, or invent, some sort of odd job that some unemployed workman could fill.

Business and civic leaders fell in line enthusiastically. The unemployed men were enrolled so that people could see just how many men needed work. Citizens who had regular jobs looked around for chances to hire men. Some engaged men to clean their furnaces. Others found they could pay a couple of dollars to have ashes hauled away and rubbish removed. Others found other small jobs. All in all, a good many men were given work that they needed very badly, and a good many flat pocketbooks got a little much-needed stuffing.

Now the important things about all of this is that it is the sort of measure that any town or city can take. It is adapted to the biggest in the country and to the smallest. It does not need a lot of wealthy people to make it a success. The man of modest means can take an important part in it.

Some of the jobs obtained in this manner prove permanent. Most of them last only a day or a week. But in either case they are extremely valuable to the men who get them. A five dollar bill looks pretty big to a man who hasn't worked since May. And it's a lot better for him to get it by earning it than by having some charitable organization hand it to him.

It is hard to over-estimate the gain that might be made if every city and town should put on a similar campaign. A great deal of misery and suffering could be averted and a real stride toward better, more active business could be made. Why not give it a try? These Racine people have an idea that deserves copying.

The Johnson chicken farm near Bowie, Texas, is said to be the largest in the world devoted exclusively to raising chickens and producing eggs.

Texas has more telephone and telegraph and railroad mileage than any State in the Union.

Texas has assessed property values (1930) of $420,000,000 and real values of three times that huge total.

Texas produces about 44 per cent of all the rock asphalt produced in the United States—320,931 short tons in 1929.

During the first six months of 1930 in Texas 226 new gas wells were completed—almost as many as the 240 completed during the entire year 1929. Initial volume of the 226 wells was 4,152,500 million cubic feet as against 4,420,500 million cubic feet of the 240 completed in 1929.

Texas has almost a world monopoly of sulphur production its total being nearly 90 per cent of the world's total and nearly 100 per cent of that of the United States. The largest sulphur plant in the world is in Wharton County, Texas.

Sterling County has an unique record among Texas counties—no Sterling County citizen has ever been sent to the penitentiary; no murder trial has ever been held in the Sterling County court house; the Sterling County jail is empty and its doors are open.

Texas is the second largest producer of rice in the United States. Estimated production for 1930 is 7,300,000 bushels.

The University of Texas has conferred 14,506 degrees since its establishment in 1883.

JAY-WALKING IS DANGEROUS

The careless pedestrian's footsteps lead him to the grave by six distinct routes, and the most travel-worn of these is the jay-walking. A very large number of the 25,000 deaths occurring last year through auto accidents were due to streaking across busy streets and not using the intersections.

Confusion on the part of the pedestrian, not hearing warnings, and turning back in his tracks brought about another large number of accidents and deaths.

Children playing in the street and hitching their wagons and bicycles behind wagons and autos helped increase the death toll. In these cases the fault was clearly the pedestrian's, and could not be blamed on the driver, the weather or unavoidable circumstances.

There is only one safe way to cross streets—cross at the proper place and then only when the way is clear. Short-cuts in many cases mean short lives.

Parents should practice the safe way of crossing streets not only for their own safety but to set an example which their children can safely follow.

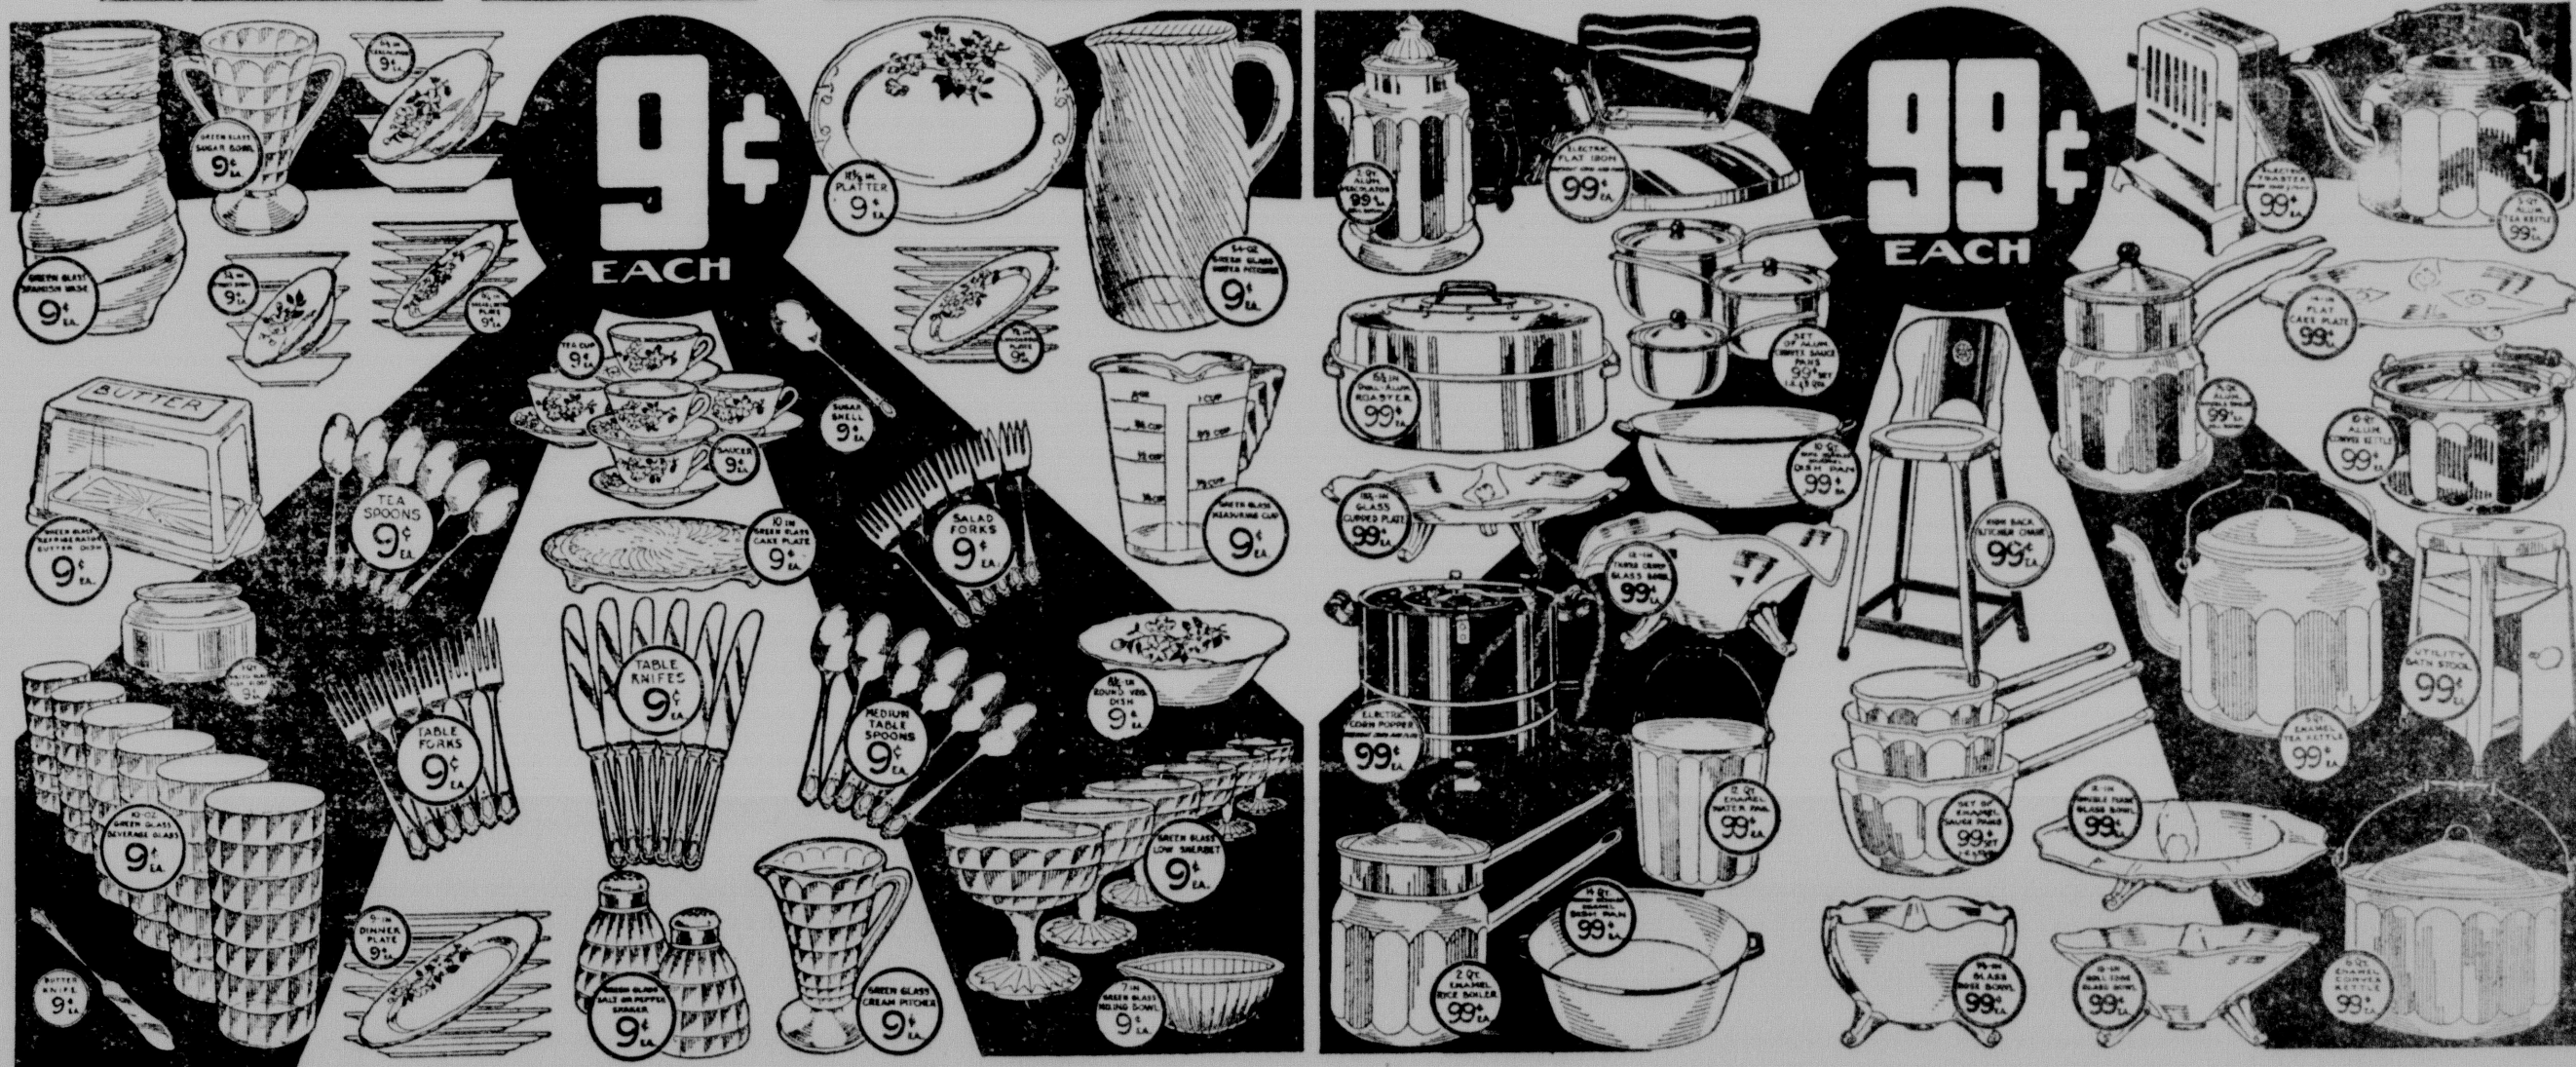

Also, children should be taught the dangers of playing in the highways and streets, and parents should, if necessary, prohibit them playing games where there is any traffic at all. Many deaths occur at places where there is very little traffic.

Every town has a few citizens who are too proud to trade at home.

Almost everybody is brave until it is time to go to the dentist.

VIOLIN CHOIR

Last week Miss Scott, director of Public School Music, sent out a call for members of the violin choir.

After the first tryout she decided to organize two choirs, one consisting of advanced violins and the other of the beginners. She states that the material she found is promising and she hopes to give the school some good performances from the choirs.

Tryouts for the boys' quartette have been held also during the past week. Miss Scott states that as she has not finished the tryouts, she has no definite announcements.

"ROPE THE WHITEFACES"

CANYON HIGH SCHOOL EXES MEET IN AUDITORIUM TO ORGANIZE; ELECT OFFICERS

The ex-student association of Canyon high school was organized Monday night at the high school building.

About fifty people were present, representing six different classes, the oldest being the class of 1903, represented by Mrs. John Davis.

The association was organized for the "support of the high school maintaining of a high scholastic standing, furthering the growth of this institution, and for maintaining close fellowship with the school."

The officers elected were: Mary Louise Anderson, '26—President.

Lee Foster, '16—Vice President. Mary Lockwood Sternberg, '29—Secretary.

Dorothy Faye Rusk, '30—Treasurer.

There will be a banquet Friday night to celebrate the Eagles' homecoming. Tuesday over forty tickets had been sold, and more orders were coming in.

Mr. Carruth stated: "It is very fine for the ex-students to do this, for this organization will be beneficial to the institution and to the exes themselves. It shows that they have a vital interest in the welfare of the school and its work. I am very glad to have them do this, and I believe it will grow and soon become one of the strongest organizations of its kind in this section. It is merely starting this year, and by next year we expect members of every graduating class of C. H. S. to be enrolled."

Anyone wishing to join the C. H. S. Ex-Students Association will kindly send their name and address to Mary Lockwood Sternberg, Canyon.

THREE ACT PLAY

The C. H. S. Talkies are now broadcasting.

Special attention is called to the fact that a three act play has been started. The title for the play is "When a Feller Needs a Friend." An able cast has been selected from the C. H. S. Talkie Club and an evening of fun and laughter is expected from them. November 25th has been the date selected for the play; so tell your friends and parents.

C. H. S. Talkies are now signing off!

Public Speaking Tourney to be Held at Amarillo

December 12th and 13th the Amarillo public school speech and debate departments are going to hold a speaking and debate tournament similar to the interscholastic contests which are held here each spring.

This tournament will consist of debates, extemporaneous speeches, declamations and plays.

At the last meeting of the C. H. S. Talkies the club voted to send representatives to the Amarillo meet.

There is ample material in the public speaking department to run the other contestants who will come from the surrounding towns a race for several first prizes.

Quite a large number have come out for both boys and girls debate, and Canyon high should put out two winning teams this year.

Chapel

Who shall be the president of the student council. That was the question which was being asked Thursday before chapel. The two young men being run for this office are Irving Gamewell, who is the senior representative, and Wilford Taylor, junior representative.

The chapel program consisted of short political speeches from various members of each class. Elizabeth Jameson, Broughton Hardin, and Hosea Foster were the senior speakers, and Katy B. Lowe and Vincent Lockhart were spokesmen of the Junior class.

Monday night the C. H. S. Talkies held their first social meeting in the high school auditorium.

The meeting was called to order by the president. The secretary read the minutes of the last business meeting.

The program was a one act play "The First Dress suit."

Cast: Mrs. Harding, Louise Wester; Betty Harding, Maxine Middleton; Teddy Harding, Robert Black; Johnny Drake, Irving Gamewell.

The scene is in the living room of the Harding home.

Betty Harding is to be married to Johnny Drake, but at the last minute Johnny realizes that his dress suit has not come. Of course he cannot be married in his old suit for then they would be the laughing stock of the town. Teddy, Betty's brother, has a new dress suit which he is very eager to wear, but when he finds that his girl friend, Clara Belle, is not to go to the wedding, he decides to let Johnny wear his suit. Johnny is ready to dress when Clara Belle calls to tell Teddy that she is going to the wedding because she just had to see him in his new dress suit. Teddy takes his suit back, dresses, and then leaves Johnny without a new dress suit to wear to the wedding.

C. H. S. Band Meets and Elects New Officers

Tuesday night the C. H. S. Band met to elect officers and to adopt a constitution.

Twenty regular members enrolled and the following officers were elected:

Louise Wester, president; Vara Edwards, secretary and treasurer; Louis Upchurch, librarian.

One of the by-laws of the constitution is that if a band member is absent, upon returning to the next practice he must present a permit obtained at the office. Thus the practice of skipping band will be eliminated.

SCIENCE CLUB MEETS

The Science Club, sponsored by Mr. Fox, met for the first time Tuesday, Oct. 14, at the daily activity period. The following officers were elected: President, Nancy Strain; vice president, Mary Orton; secretary-treasurer, Mildred Middleton; reporter, Annie Johnson. The president appointed the program committee, the constitution committee and the social committee.

This club is for science students, and the programs will consist of discussions of such things as scientific inventions, experiments, and discoveries. More students are urged to attend the future meetings and enjoy the interesting programs.

GRADE SCHOOL

Miss Smith, the seventh grade baseball umpire, has been holding a baseball tournament. This, the Round Robin tournament, has been hailed with great success. The grade school has four baseball teams and two diamonds. They play every day at noon.

Candidates Tie for President of Student Council

Wilford Taylor Jr., and Irving Gamewell, tied for the position of Student Council President by a student vote of 89 to 89 Friday.

Taylor was the nominee of the junior class, and Gamewell of the senior class. The sophomore and freshman classes were not allowed to run candidates.

Much enthusiasm was aroused by the voting Friday. Herbert Slack, Vincent Lockhart, Lucile Davault, James Cabe, Broughton Hardin, and Miss Stella Rusk held the election.

The Student Council plan is new to Canyon High. This council is to be composed of a president, elected at large by the student body, and a representative of each home room. This council is to co-operate and meet with the faculty in regard to student discipline and problems. In this way the faculty and student body will co-operate more closely, the students be allowed more self government and the faculty will gain a better view of the student life of the high school.

No definite date was set Friday for the run-off, but it will be held sometime this week.

Sophomores

Due to the fact that Mrs. Landers, sponsor of the Sophomore class, could not meet with them on the regular class meeting days, Miss Weter, head of the expression department, was elected sponsor for the remainder of the term. The class regrets very much that Mrs. Landers could not continue her work with them throughout the year. Although they are very well pleased with the new leader and are continuing their work as one of the leading classes.

At the last meeting with Mr. McDonald's suggestion, Jeanette Golden and Edwin Whitfield were elected as pep leaders. It will, on class celebrations, bring out the snappy pep of the class and let it be known that the Sophomores really have a lively spirit.

The way things are speeded up in this country it won't be long until a man can take a two weeks' vacation in four days.

VIOLIN CHOIR

Last week Miss Scott, director of Public School Music, sent out a call for members of the violin choir.

After the first tryout she decided to organize two choirs, one consisting of advanced violins and the other of the beginners. She states that the material she found is promising and she hopes to give the school some good performances from the choirs.

Tryouts for the boys' quartette have been held also during the past week. Miss Scott states that as she has not finished the tryouts, she has no definite announcements.

"ROPE THE WHITEFACES"

CANYON HIGH SCHOOL EXES MEET IN AUDITORIUM TO ORGANIZE; ELECT OFFICERS

The ex-student association of Canyon high school was organized Monday night at the high school building.

About fifty people were present, representing six different classes, the oldest being the class of 1903, represented by Mrs. John Davis.

The association was organized for the "support of the high school maintaining of a high scholastic standing, furthering the growth of this institution, and for maintaining close fellowship with the school."

The officers elected were: Mary Louise Anderson, '26—President.

Lee Foster, '16—Vice President. Mary Lockwood Sternberg, '29—Secretary. Dorothy Faye Rusk, '30—Treasurer.

There will be a banquet Friday night to celebrate the Eagles' homecoming. Tuesday over forty tickets had been sold, and more orders were coming in.

Mr. Carruth stated: "It is very fine for the ex-students to do this, for this organization will be beneficial to the institution and to the exes themselves. It shows that they have a vital interest in the welfare of the school and its work. I am very glad to have them do this, and I believe it will grow and soon become one of the strongest organizations of its kind in this section. It is merely starting this year, and by next year we expect members of every graduating class of C. H. S. to be enrolled."

Anyone wishing to join the C. H. S. Ex-Students Association will kindly send their name and address to Mary Lockwood Sternberg, Canyon.

THREE ACT PLAY

The C. H. S. Talkies are now broadcasting.

Special attention is called to the fact that a three act play has been started. The title for the play is "When a Feller Needs a Friend." An able cast has been selected from the C. H. S. Talkie Club and an evening of fun and laughter is expected from them. November 25th has been the date selected for the play; so tell your friends and parents.

C. H. S. Talkies are now signing off!

Public Speaking Tourney to be Held at Amarillo

December 12th and 13th the Amarillo public school speech and debate departments are going to hold a speaking and debate tournament similar to the interscholastic contests which are held here each spring.

This tournament will consist of debates, extemporaneous speeches, declamations and plays.

At the last meeting of the C. H. S. Talkies the club voted to send representatives to the Amarillo meet.

There is ample material in the public speaking department to run the other contestants who will come from the surrounding towns a race for several first prizes.

Quite a large number have come out for both boys and girls debate, and Canyon high should put out two winning teams this year.

Chapel

Who shall be the president of the student council. That was the question which was being asked Thursday before chapel. The two young men being run for this office are Irving Gamewell, who is the senior representative, and Wilford Taylor, junior representative.

The chapel program consisted of short political speeches from various members of each class. Elizabeth Jameson, Broughton Hardin, and Hosea Foster were the senior speakers, and Katy B. Lowe and Vincent Lockhart were spokesmen of the Junior class.

Monday night the C. H. S. Talkies held their first social meeting in the high school auditorium.

The meeting was called to order by the president. The secretary read the minutes of the last business meeting.

The program was a one act play "The First Dress Suit."

Cast: Mrs. Harding, Louise Wester; Betty Harding, Maxine Middleton; Teddy Harding, Robert Black; Johnny Drake, Irving Gamewell.

The scene is in the living room of the Harding home.

Betty Harding is to be married to Johnny Drake, but at the last minute Johnny realizes that his dress suit has not come. Of course he cannot be married in his old suit for then they would be the laughing stock of the town. Teddy, Betty's brother, has a new dress suit which he is very eager to wear, but when he finds that his girl friend, Clara Belle, is not to go to the wedding, he decides to let Johnny wear his suit. Johnny is ready to dress when Clara Belle calls to tell Teddy that she is going to the wedding because she just had to see him in his new dress suit. Teddy takes his suit back, dresses, and then leaves Johnny without a new dress suit to wear to the wedding.

LONG-SKIRTED COATS AND TUNIC BLOUSES ARE CUT IN COSSACK FASHION—EVEN HATS, BAGS, SCARFS, JEWELRY HAVE SLAVIC SPIRIT

BY HARRIET

THE Russian influence, whether in the form of a regulation Russian tunic, in a decorative peasant embroidery note or in a modified Russian style of garment, is of real importance this year.

Many of the new suits have long skirted coats and collars that are Russian in cut. They are especially good on slender figures. Long tunic blouses are definitely of this Slavic trend. Regal in appearance they come in all kinds of material, long and belted. An excellent way to utilize a suit that seems no longer to fit your need, is to add a white or gold colored satin Russian tunic. You can let your skirt down longer by putting it on an underwaist that comes well over the hips. The overblouse, extending almost to knee length, will cover the underwaist completely.

Wind break suits, in knitted material, now come with the jackets buttoned up one side and with collar fastening way over on that side in true Cossack manner. Even the knitted dresses have a way of showing some modified Russian influence.

For instance, there is a neat little one-piece frock of the new nubbed boucle in several tones of green. The waist fastens on the side. It has a Russian motif despite the V neck. This green frock has a ribbed waist band that is very new, fitting the body neatly and which can adjust itself to a slight increase or decrease in your weight.

MORE Russian is a little tunic suit in eponge homespun with a three-quarters coat that fastens up one side. It has a slit scarf collar of Persian lamb that fastens under one ear.

This coat has a bloused effect and the long tunic skirt flares in quite the manner of the old czarist army coats.

The skirt of this brown suit is made wrap around. It has individual tucking that runs in diagonal manner all through the skirt, giving it a richness which plain material lacks.

The one-piece frock right, has a ribbed waist band which makes it possible for every woman to adjust her blouse to suit her figure. The fabric is a new nubbed boucle. The Russian tunic suit, left, has a slit scarf collar of Persian lamb. The material is eponge homespun.

In addition to these outfits showing Slavic influence, some of the newest hats reflect the same source of inspiration. Cross-stitched woolen berets are to be very smart this winter. They are colorful and promise a great vogue for mid-winter sports.

Bags with cross stitched design, sports shoes in mosaic multi-colored leather trim, mittens embroidered or knitted in designs of peasant figures and gaudy peasant colors, scarfs of many kinds with modern Russian designs—all these reflect the Caucasus spirit.

And to top it all, one of the newest of pins is a Russian rouble, routed out and mounted.

It is also the swift scurrying of relatives and friends to find a wedding gift that is unique and precious, yet not too costly. If you will direct your own private "wedding march" towards the Warwick Printing Company, you'll find the answer to your search . . . a matchless collection of gifts at remarkable prices.

Pieces of chromium plated table ware (requires no polishing). Any bride likes things to make her table more attractive, and these bread trays, relish dishes, etc. surely do. See them by all means.

EUROPEAN CHINA DISHES

Rare china dishes that are colorful imported European dishes. They are so distinctive from anything American that you would expect them to be much higher priced. A pitcher or cream and sugar set will surely be welcomed by the bride and groom.

Buffaloes Take Second T. I. A. A. Game By Defeating Commerce Lions In Friday Night's Tussle

Despite the fact that the Commerce Lions put up an inspired battle that kept the spectators on their feet throughout the entire game, Powell again led the Thundering Herd to a 14-0 victory in Friday night's game by taking the bull by the horns and riding rough shod over eleven roaring Lions in the first half of a spectacular grid classic. Though O'Donald and Clark made the necessary counters to put Commerce back in the 500 class, the East Texans played football and kept the Buffs fighting for sixty minutes to keep their hard earned points safe.

Powell, as usual, was the man who made the two touchdowns possible and it was only during the second quarter that the Buffs played real football. Bob Clark pulled his usual unexpected play, this time for an almost impossible 37 yard run through a mass of Lions. O'Donald played the best game of his career and never failed to gain ground in an impressive manner that satisfied the most rabid fan.

But that spread formation that the Lions sprung on the Buffaloes gave the entire herd the headache trying to figure it all out and by the time they had mastered the fine points, the game was over. Beadle, Brewer and Johnston for the visitors made some spectacular runs from this formation and Johnston, East Texas full back showed that he well deserves the name of the T. I. A. A's champion passer. Sad to relate, however, his labors were all in vain, for with the exception of three attempts, his passes were all lost labor. There was too much Buffalo forward wall and not enough Commerce men on the receiving end.

The Game

The game opened under almost ideal weather conditions, though somewhat cold. The Buffs kicked off to the Lions at the south end of the field. McClendon kicked a beauty, the ball going over the goal line. Right here at this junction of the battle the Buffs were in scoring position five different times, only to be outlucked or outplayed by Commerce. Near the end of the first quarter, Powell started the fireworks, returned one of the Lions' punts for forty yards of shifty broken field running, placing the ball in scoring position, and in the opening of the second quarter after a fizzled punt by the Lions, Powell again made a 20 yard gain. "Rusty" O'Donald plunged over for the first touchdown and Clark kicked the necessary extra point. Score 7-0.

After drawing two costly penalties and having a punt blocked, the ball went to the Lions. Beadle opened up his bag of tricks and unfurled that spread formation that well might prove fatal for the Buffaloes, but the Numians were unable to supply the necessary impetus to count and the Buffaloes again took the offensive. Powell repeating his performance with a forty yard gain, a 12 yard pass to Williams and, after Powell had made 22 yards in three plays, he gave the ball to Bob Clark for the second touchdown of the game and quarter. Clark kicked goal again and the quarter ended with the score 14-0 in favor of the Herd.

Second Half

Contrary to all predictions that the Lions had gotten all their manes sheared, they came back in the second half with a superior brand of ball totting that kept the Buffs fighting every minute. They again opened up their trick formation and freely sprinkled the field with passes, but failed to score. Yarbrough, Lion center, who had the ability to pass the ball in various and sundry directions, was the key to the success of Beadle, Johnston and Brewer, but they worked the play just a few times too many and Johnston had to fall back on his passes again, which was just what the Buffaloes wanted, and they failed to make connections. With the exception of one or two sensational runs by Powell and two good gains by Bennett, who took Powell's place in the fourth quarter, the Buffs were content to try to decipher that spread play and knock down Johnston's long, terrific passes. The game ended with the ball on the Buffaloes' 37 yard line, the score standing Buffs: 14; Commerce: 0.

Stars of the Game

Powell, O'Donald, Williams and Clark for the home team, and Beadle, Brewer, and Johnston for the visitors starred in the running plays. Williams, Burk and Haley can be credited with the Lions' inability to pass successfully; and "Cow" Williams got off some long ranged punts when distance was absolutely essential. The Buff line overshadowed the Lions' first wall and demonstrated that they were not bothered with any complexes this time only failing to solve the wing plays which could not be charged against them. To Johnston of the East Texas team must go the wreath for cool, long ranged passing, only failing short because of superior blocking by the defense of the Buffaloes. "Sissy" Powell won the election for first place because it always took nine men and the referee to stop him when he had the ball. O'Donald proved to be the toughest morsel that the Lions had to digest on line plays, being able to crash for good gains with monotonous regularity.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. City Pharmacy.

Buffaloes Take Second T. I. A. A. Game By Defeating Commerce Lions In Friday Night's Tussle

Despite the fact that the Commerce Lions put up an inspired battle that kept the spectators on their feet throughout the entire game, Powell again led the Thundering Herd to a 14-0 victory in Friday night's game by taking the bull by the horns and riding rough shod over eleven roaring Lions in the first half of a spectacular grid classic. Though O'Donald and Clark made the necessary counters to put Commerce back in the .500 class, the East Texans played football and kept the Buffs fighting for sixty minutes to keep their hard earned points safe.

Powell, as usual, was the man who made the two touchdowns possible and it was only during the second quarter that the Buffs played real football. Bob Clark pulled his usual unexpected play, this time for an almost impossible 37 yard run through a mass of Lions. O'Donald played the best game of his career and never failed to gain ground in an impressive manner that satisfied the most rabid fan.

But that spread formation that the Lions sprung on the Buffaloes gave the entire herd the headache trying to figure it all out and by the time they had mastered the fine points, the game was over. Beadle, Brewer and Johnston for the visitors made some spectacular runs from this formation and Johnston, East Texas full back showed that he well deserves the name of the T. I. A. A.'s champion passer. Sad to relate, however, his labors were all in vain, for with the exception of three attempts, his passes were all lost labor. There was too much Buffalo forward wall and not enough Commerce men on the receiving end.

The Game

The game opened under almost ideal weather conditions, though somewhat cold. The Buffs kicked off to the Lions at the south end of the field. McClendon kicked a beauty, the ball going over the goal line. Right here at this junction of the battle the Buffs were in scoring position five different times, only to be outlucked or outplayed by Commerce. Near the end of the first quarter, Powell started the fireworks, returned one of the Lions' punts for forty yards of shifty broken field running, placing the ball in scoring position, and in the opening of the second quarter after a fizzled punt by the Lions, Powell again made a 20 yard gain. "Rusty" O'Donald plunged over for the first touchdown and Clark kicked the necessary extra point. Score 7-0.

After drawing two costly penalties and having a punt blocked, the ball went to the Lions. Beadle opened up his bag of tricks and unfurled that spread formation that well might prove fatal for the Buffaloes, but the Numians were unable to supply the necessary impetus to count and the Buffaloes again took the offensive. Powell repeating his performance with a forty yard gain, a 12 yard pass to Williams and, after Powell had made 22 yards in three plays, he gave the ball to Bob Clark for the second touchdown of the game and quarter. Clark kicked goal again and the quarter ended with the score 14-0 in favor of the Herd.

Second Half

Contrary to all predictions that the Lions had gotten all their manes sheared, they came back in the second half with a superior brand of ball totting that kept the Buffs fighting every minute. They again opened up their trick formation and freely sprinkled the field with passes, but failed to score. Yarbrough, Lion center, who had the ability to pass the ball in various and sundry directions, was the key to the success of Beadle, Johnston and Brewer, but they worked the play just a few times too many and Johnston had to fall back on his passes again, which was just what the Buffaloes wanted, and they failed to make connections. With the exception of one or two sensational runs by Powell, and two good gains by Bennett, who took Powell's place in the fourth quarter, the Buffs were content to try to decipher that spread play and knock down Johnston's long, terrific passes. The game ended with the ball on the Buffaloes' 37 yard line, the score standing Buffs: 14; Commerce: 0.

Stars of the Game

Powell, O'Donald, Williams and Clark for the home team, and Beadle, Brewer, and Johnston for the visitors starred in the running plays. Williams, Burk and Haley can be credited with the Lions' inability to pass successfully; and "Cow" Williams got off some long ranged punts when distance was absolutely essential. The Buff line overshadowed the Lions' first wall and demonstrated that they were not bothered with any complexes this time only failing to solve the wing plays which could not be charged against them. To Johnston of the East Texas team must go the wreath for cool, long ranged passing, only falling short because of superior blocking by the defense of the Buffaloes. "Sissy" Powell won the election for first place because it always took nine men and the referee to stop him when he had the ball. O'Donald proved to be the toughest morsel that the Lions had to digest on line plays, being able to crash for good gains with monotonous regularity.

Amendments

securities than U. S. bonds. The university now has about sixteen millions of dollars in this fund, the greater part of which is loaned to the U. S. government at three and one-fourth percent interest. These bonds are due in 1933 and it is predicted that the government will not be forced to pay a greater rate of interest than two or two and one-fourth percent. The amendment would allow the regents to invest this great sum of money in Texas securities—municipal, county and school bonds, all of which will bring from four to five percent interest. This would give the university at least twice as much interest on this great fund as it will be able to get after 1933. The fund will greatly increase as the oil fields increase, and it is stated by oil men that this permanent fund may reach as high as one hundred millions of dollars. Now is the time for action on this amendment, and no argument has been presented against its adoption if the people will study it and vote on November 4th.

The two legislative amendments were discussed at length by Mr. Warwick. One provides for an increase in pay for members of the legislature from $5 to $10, but at the same time a reduction in mileage. To members living a great distance, as those in the Panhandle, this amendment means little change in pay, as the mileage means more than the pay per day. However, the amendment is a good one, as affecting the whole state, and will not increase the cost of holding the session of the legislature a great amount.

The second amendment regarding the new method of holding the sessions of the legislature was stated by all acquainted with legislative procedure to be the best plan ever devised. The first 30 days would be devoted to the introduction of bills and passing emergency legislation, such as submitted by the Governor. During the next thirty days the bills introduced would have hearings before the committees. Under the present plan now in operation, the bills are not given satisfactory hearings. Bills are rushed out of the committees with hardly a chance to be discussed, or investigation made as to their merits. The public has only one chance to discuss legislation, and that is before the committees. It is impossible under our present conditions to hope for only a sixty days session of the legislature. There are too many interests in the state, and too many bills which must be acted upon—passed or defeated—to hope for a short session as was the case twenty years ago when there were only two major questions—prohibition and railroad regulation.

Mr. Warwick asked the club members not to condemn any of the amendments without first having thoroughly investigated the merits of the measures. In the past amendment have been blindly defeated without investigation. If after investigation the voter believes that any of these amendments are bad policy for the state, then it is his duty to vote against them. But just to condemn them because they are amendments to the constitution is not a fair means to be taken by the voters.

Mr. Warwick will go to Panhandle Friday to discuss the proposed amendment, and will visit a number of towns next week.

public schools would be to fail the State and the cause of education. The West Texas State Teachers College has led the fight for this further recognition and is proud of its achievement. The consistent demand on the part of ex-students and the careful presentation of the problem by Dean R. P. Jarrett did much to convince the Board of the advisability of taking this step at this time. Superintendents from all over our territory, and especially C. A. Cryer of Dimmitt, L. L. Sone of Panhandle, and Irby Carruth of Canyon who appeared before the Board, deserve and have our thanks for their help.

Both President Hill and Dean R. P. Jarrett have stated that graduate work will be introduced gradually, with careful formulation of standards. "The Master's Degree," said Mr. Hill, "Should stand for careful work, maturity of judgment, ability to carry on research, and, in the teachers college, a high degree of teaching skill. We want ours to stand for the best."

Canyon's excellent summer climate will make the graduate school here especially attractive during the summer months. People who are ready for graduate work can usually afford to seek comfortable living and working conditions. All this means that the summer school here will probably grow when it becomes known that work beyond the bachelor's degree can be had here.

Junior College of Amarillo Will Play Yearlings

One more night game this season was scheduled for Buffalo Stadium when negotiations were completed Tuesday afternoon for a set-up of the Amarillo Junior College Badgers and the West Texas Yearlings game originally scheduled for November 20. The grid game has been set for 8 p. m. Saturday.

The game was changed to Saturday night because of the canceled game between the Amarillo Junior College and the New Mexico University. The Amarillo team was notified early Tuesday morning that the Normal would be unable to meet the Badgers at Las Vegas and as a result the Badger-Yearling tussle was changed to Saturday night to mark the final night game at Buffalo Stadium this year.

The Badgers playing their first year as a football team for the junior college have made a splendid showing so far this season. In all their games they have displayed a good brand of football which has pleased the Badger fans. The Badgers, coached by Al Baggett, trounced the Tech Freshmen last week by a 9 to 0 score. The game will be the first night affair for the Badgers and a large aggregation of fans from Amarillo are expected to come to Canyon for the game Saturday night.

Coach Mitchell Jones' Yearlings are showing up well and have the fight for which the Jones coached teams are famous. They sent the Montezuma, New Mexico College team to defeat by a 8 to 9 score last week.

With the two teams playing a good brand of football so far this season the game should prove to be a good one.

LOCKHART TO CONDUCT COLLEGE CHAPEL PROGRAM

W. E. Lockhart will have charge of the Assembly program at the college on Saturday morning.

Last Saturday's program was in charge of L. S. Baker, head of the Biology department. He spoke upon the health, showing how infection takes place and how resistance is built up by the human body.

The college is making a special effort to have the assembly programs interesting. Townspeople are invited to attend the programs which interest them. The assembly hour is eleven on Tuesday and Friday.

WHAT DO YOU THINK

What is the price of glory—that is, if one can find glory in the winning of some freak contest such as marathon dancing, flag pole or tree sitting, pie eating or coffee drinking? But whether the glory is there or not, the price surely is, and it almost invariably proves to be a higher one than any of the contestants dreamed could result. Senseless, meaningless and dangerous contests of all kinds seem to become the craze in America since Lindbergh's notable achievement some few years ago.

It required only thirty-three hours for Charles A. Lindbergh to span the Atlantic and advance the cause of commercial aviation a decade, whereas thousands of hours have been consumed in trying to determine which marathon dance couple will stagger away with an empty honor and a prize that is worth no more than a healthy man can earn in the same length of time at day labor.

Common sense tells us that freak endurance contests are pointless and silly; physicians agree that many of them are downright harmful, leaving lasting marks upon the physical and mental condition of the participants.

In marathon dancing we are told, girls will be ruined for healthy normal motherhood, and many others, both men and women, will go through life handicapped by results of the unnatural and dangerous exertions and physical abuse.

Abuse to the human body and nervous system, in the name of contests, endurance tests and freak exhibitions are a menace to both health and intelligence, we think. What do you think?

Amendments

securities than U. S. bonds. The university now has about sixteen millions of dollars in this fund, the greater part of which is loaned to the U. S. government at three and one-fourth percent interest. These bonds are due in 1933 and it is predicted that the government will not be forced to pay a greater rate of interest than two or two and one-fourth percent. The amendment would allow the regents to invest this great sum of money in Texas securities—municipal, county and school bonds, all of which will bring from four to five percent interest. This would give the university at least twice as much interest on this great fund as it will be able to get after 1933. The fund will greatly increase as the oil fields increase and it is stated by oil men that this permanent fund may reach as high as one hundred millions of dollars. Now is the time for action on this amendment, and no argument has been presented against its adoption if the people will study it and vote on November 4th.

The two legislative amendments were discussed at length by Mr. Warwick. One provides for an increase in pay for members of the legislature from $5 to $10, but at the same time a reduction in mileage. To members living a great distance, as those in the Panhandle, this amendment means little change in pay, as the mileage means more than the pay per day. However, the amendment is a good one, as affecting the whole state, and will not increase the cost of holding the session of the legislature a great amount.

The second amendment regarding the new method of holding the sessions of the legislature was stated by all acquainted with legislative procedure to be the best plan ever devised. The first 30 days would be devoted to the introduction of bills and passing emergency legislation, such as submitted by the Governor. During the next thirty days the bills introduced would have hearings before the committees. Under the present plan now in operation the bills are not given satisfactory hearings. Bills are rushed out of the committees with hardly a chance to be discussed, or investigation made as to their merits. The public has only one chance to discuss legislation, and that is before the committees. It is impossible under our present conditions to hope for only a sixty days session of the legislature. There are too many interests in the state, and too many bills which must be acted upon—passed or defeated—to hope for a short session as was the case twenty years ago when there were only two major questions—prohibition and railroad regulation.

Mr. Warwick asked the club members not to condemn any of the amendments without first having thoroughly investigated the merits of the measures. In the past amendment have been blindly defeated without investigation. If after investigation the voter believes that any of these amendments are bad policy for the state, then it is his duty to vote against them. But just to condemn them because they are amendments to the constitution is not a fair means to be taken by the voters.

Mr. Warwick will go to Panhandle Friday to discuss the proposed amendment, and will visit a number of towns next week.

public schools would be to fail the State and the cause of education. "The West Texas State Teachers College has led the fight for this further recognition and is proud of its achievement. The consistent demand on the part of ex-students and the careful presentation of the problem by Dean R. P. Jarrett did much to convince the Board of the advisability of taking this step at this time. Superintendents from all over our territory, and especially C. A. Cryer of Dimmitt, L. L. Sone of Panhandle, and Irby Carruth of Canyon who appeared before the Board, deserve and have our thanks for their help."

Both President Hill and Dean R. P. Jarrett have stated that graduate work will be introduced gradually, with careful formulation of standards. "The Master's Degree," said Mr. Hill, "Should stand for careful work, maturity of judgment, ability to carry on research, and, in the teachers college, a high degree of teaching skill. We want ours to stand for the best."

Canyon's excellent summer climate will make the graduate school here especially attractive during the summer months. People who are ready for graduate work can usually afford to seek comfortable living and working conditions. All this means that the summer school here will probably grow when it becomes known that work beyond the bachelor's degree can be had here.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH Special Announcement

We are very happy to announce that our meeting begins on the evening of the 29th. That is one week from yesterday.

The services will be held in the beautiful auditorium of our new church. Brother Arthur Long of Fort Worth will do the preaching and Brother Shaw of the First Christian Church of Amarillo will be our song leader.

Brother Long is one of our very best evangelists in all our brotherhood. Brother Shaw is known to most of you and I must say he is a fine song leader and church worker.

We want to thank the public for their splendid co-operation and help in every way in the building of this beautiful house of worship.

A cordial invitation is extended to one and all and a special invitation extended to the singers of the other churches. Remember the place, First Christian Church, and the time, 7:30 p. m., Oct. 29. Everybody come.

A. K. SCOTT, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

There was a large audience present at services last Sunday morning. Interest is growing at every service and we are urging that all members who are not coming to heed the admonition to "not forsake the assembling of themselves together." You have an appointment every Lord's Day with Christ. Don't fail to take advantage of these opportunities, as you pass this way but once. Think what it will mean to be rejected at Heaven's Door.

We invite everyone to worship with us in "spirit and in truth." We start promptly on time. Come where everyone is friendly.

The Presbyterian Church social has been postponed to Friday, October 31st. Those who are interested will please take notice of the change in date and be on hand for an enjoyable evening.

Junior College of Amarillo Will Play Yearlings

One more night game this season was scheduled for Buffalo Stadium when negotiations were completed Tuesday afternoon for a set-up of the Amarillo Junior College Badgers and the West Texas Yearlings game originally scheduled for November 20. The grid game has been set for 8 p. m. Saturday.

The game was changed to Saturday night because of the canceled game between the Amarillo Junior College and the New Mexico University. The Amarillo team was notified early Tuesday morning that the Normal would be unable to meet the Badgers at Las Vegas and as a result the Badger-Yearling tussle was changed to Saturday night to mark the final night game at Buffalo Stadium this year.

The Badgers playing their first year as a football team for the junior college have made a splendid showing so far this season. In all their games they have displayed a good brand of football which has pleased the Badger fans. The Badgers, coached by Al Baggett, trounced the Tech Freshmen last week by a 9 to 0 score. The game will be the first night affair for the Badgers and a large aggregation of fans from Amarillo are expected to come to Canyon for the game Saturday night.

Coach Mitchell Jones' Yearlings are showing up well and have the fight for which the Jones coached teams are famous. They sent the Montezuma, New Mexico College team to defeat by a 8 to 9 score last week.

With the two teams playing a good brand of football so far this season the game should prove to be a good one.

LOCKHART TO CONDUCT COLLEGE CHAPEL PROGRAM

W. E. Lockhart will have charge of the Assembly program at the college on Saturday morning.

Last Saturday's program was in charge of L. S. Baker, head of the Biology department. He spoke upon the health, showing how infection takes place and how resistance is built up by the human body.

The college is making a special effort to have the assembly programs interesting. Townspeople are invited to attend the programs which interest them. The assembly hour is eleven on Tuesday and Friday.

WHAT DO YOU THINK

What is the price of glory—that is, if one can find glory in the winning of some freak contest such as marathon dancing, flag pole or tree sitting, pie eating or coffee drinking? But whether the glory is there or not, the price surely is, and it almost invariably proves to be a higher one than any of the contestants dreamed could result.

Senseless, meaningless and dangerous contests of all kinds seem to become the craze in America since Lindbergh's notable achievement some few years ago.

It required only thirty-three hours for Charles A. Lindbergh to span the Atlantic and advance the cause of commercial aviation a decade, whereas thousands of hours have been consumed in trying to determine which marathon dance couple will stagger away with an empty honor and a prize that is worth no more than a healthy man can earn in the same length of time at day labor.

Common sense tells us that freak endurance contests are pointless and silly; physicians agree that many of them are downright harmful, leaving lasting marks upon the physical and mental condition of the participants.

In marathon dancing we are told, girls will be ruined for healthy normal motherhood, and many others, both men and women, will go through life handicapped by results of the unnatural and dangerous exertions and physical abuse.

Abuse to the human body and nervous system, in the name of contests, endurance tests and freak exhibitions are a menace to both health and intelligence, we think. What do you think?

Something Else Again
